Section C, (3) Education Program

A Coordinator who will have the following committees with chairs shall administer the Education Program: Curriculum, On-line learning, Watch and Clock Traveling Workshops, Programs, and Audio Visual. Each Committee will be composed with a chair that will select the committee members.

1. Curriculum is responsible to develop the various paths of learning the NAWCC offers.
   1. Review all NAWCC sponsored technical educational courses to provide for excellence in horological training programs offered by the NAWCC.
   2. Identify needs for additional offerings and develop curricula for new courses in conjunction with potential course instructors and based upon attendee feedback from evaluations.
   3. Study means of integrating the various forms of technical education offered through the NAWCC so participants in various offerings are offered similar paths of learning between one form and another (i.e. a Watch and Clock Traveling workshop vs. an onsite course at educational facility in Columbia vs. an online course)
   4. Works with the NAWCC education staff to evaluate instructor’s methods of teaching and ensure all technical educational courses are meeting the course objectives and standards of excellence set by the group. Review participant evaluations and feedback.

2. The On-line-learning Committee is responsible to develop quality online courses.
1. Develop a series of online technical education courses that meet the standards of excellence set by the curriculum and best practices task force in the area of clock and watch repair and are based upon member demand and survey/evaluation results.
2. Prepare and/or review the script for each individual course
3. Develop the storyboard for each individual course
4. Secure the talent/instructor for each individual course
5. Prepare any props needed for each individual course
6. Coordinate with NAWCC education staff the above activities and the filming/editing of each course

(c) Watch and Clock Traveling Workshops Committee is to provide technical repair and restoration training to those who do not have access to the educational center in Columbia, PA., by training courses developed by the standards and curriculum committee and sponsored/hosted by NAWCC chapters at local locations.
1. Responsible for the day to day operation of the Watch and Clock Traveling Workshop Program
2. Appoints a Watch and Clock Traveling Workshop administrator to coordinate workshop dates, assign an instructor and send each student the course requirements. The Administrator also emails each student a course outline, the required student tool list, a list of vendors where tools can be purchased, information on the movement needed in class, and a reading reference list. The administrator also gathers evaluations from attendees for future course planning and instructor evaluations.
3. Appoints a lead instructor/evaluator to train and evaluate instructors of the program
4. Recruit, train, and evaluate instructors for the program
5. Maintain records of tool kits/update kits as necessary
6. Make recommendations to the curriculum and best practices task force for revisions/additions to the program
7. Work with the NAWCC education staff and marketing staff to promote courses both internally to members/chapters and externally to potential members where workshops are scheduled

(d) Program Committee is to cultivate non-technical Horological programs for usage by the NAWCC for educational purposes.
1. Maintain and recruit members for the Speaker's Bureau
2. Develop yearly schedule of online speakers on topics related to non-technical horological education.
3. Assist the local convention committee and symposium committee in the recruitment of horological speakers for these events.
4. Obtain signed releases from all recorded program content owners, to enable archiving, publication, and usage by NAWCC for educational purposes. Specific policies, procedures, and responsibilities will be incorporated in the committee’s operating procedures.
5. Assist chapters in program development if requested

(e) Audio Visual Committee is responsible to capture and edit programs for usage by the NAWCC for educational purposes.

1. Capture of programs presented at national conventions and the symposiums. Coordinate with the national and symposium committees with respect to the timing of the programs to facilitate recording as many programs as possible.

2. Capture of suitable programs presented at regional meetings, when committee members and equipment are available.

3. All captured programs are to be recorded digitally and a master recording archived.

4. Develop standards for editing programs and edit recorded programs captured at NAWCC meetings, conventions, and symposium to those standards. Review these standards periodically as advances in technology change and may make current standards outdated.

5. See that copies in current lending formats are given to the NAWCC library to be made available for lending purposes. Where program owners have authorized, some programs will be converted to a format suitable for online streaming from the NAWCC website.

6. Obtain signed releases from all program content owners, to enable archiving, publication, and usage by NAWCC for educational purposes.
