15. The meeting broke for Lunch 12:10 p.m. – 12:52 p.m.

16. Ansonia Street Clock Presentation: Chair Newman presented notes from Jim Coulson, who presented to those assembled for the Board orientation day. Frank Del Greco prepared a full size mock-up of the clock and movement which was available for viewing in the rotunda of the building. The Board discussed possible display locations and concurred that Executive Director Wilcox should move forward to locate the clock within the Museum. The Board also discussed the authority of the Executive Director to modify the flooring as necessary to locate and operate the clock, and that the associated cost be included in the fundraising activities already in progress. There were no motions resulting from the discussion.

17. Action Plan Updates:

   17.1. Increase Membership from anywhere in the World: Rebecca Hickey presented the progress made to date by the Expansion Team.

   17.2. Increase Chapter Support, Engagement & Partnering: Gillian Radel presented the progress made to date by the Engagement Team.

   17.3. Improve Quality & Consistency of Touchpoints: Kim Jovinelli presented the progress made to date by the Excellence Team.

   17.4. Establish Positive & Inclusive Brand: Christiane Odyniec presented the progress made to date by the Evolution Team.

   17.5. Financial Discipline, Stability & Sustainability: Chuck Auman presented the progress made to date by the Excel Team.
18. Director Orr presented a proposal from the Membership Committee to extend the special first time member rate designated for individual members recruited by members to all first time members, regardless of source. Executive Director Wilcox requested it to be marketed also as a “gift membership” for first time recruited members. Director Orr presented a draft of the recruiting brochure to the Board. MOTION: Made by Director Orr, seconded by Director Lee. Call to Order, December 2, 2017

26. Chair Newman reconvened the meeting of the Board of Directors to order at 9:02 am.

27. Chair Newman welcomed the members in attendance.

28. A Roll Call was taken to establish a quorum. Treasurer Miller was absent; all other Board members were in attendance.
29. Announcements: Director Lee announced the transfer of the Midwest Scholarship Fund to the Executive Director’s discretionary fund to be used for educational purposes. The Midwest Scholarship fund has not received any applications for scholarships for several years, and wanted the monies to be used for their intended purpose (education). The fund total is just under $25,000.

30. Review Agenda and Amend as Needed: Chair Newman reminded members of the items that were moved to yesterday’s session; otherwise the agenda remains as distributed.

31. Symposium Updates – 2017 and future

2017: Fortunat Mueller-Maerki reported for Bob Frishman who was unable to attend. The 2017 Symposium in Boston was well attended. The majority of the speakers and the attendees had not previously been involved with NAWCC. The Symposium generated a modest surplus, which has been added to the reserve fund for future symposia.

2019: Fortunat Mueller-Maerki reported on the 2019 Symposium scheduled for the third week in September in Nuremberg, Germany. The topic is “the contributions to horology from the German speaking parts of Europe.” There are sixteen speakers scheduled for the Symposium. There will also be additional tours of private collections and museums offered both before and after the Symposium.

2018: Chair Newman reported on the plans for the 2018 Symposium scheduled to be held at the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn, Michigan. Topics will include the Henry Ford horology collection, the industrialization movement from Eli Terry to Henry Ford, automotive clocks, and the history of automobile race timing.

32. Standing Rules Update: Vice Chair Holloway reviewed the Board of Directors section of the standing rules document previously provided to the Directors. The appropriate portions of the Bylaws are copied into the document and the Code of Ethics has been incorporated. The remaining standing rules involving the Board have been reviewed and modified as necessary. The Board discussed the changes and provided feedback to Vice Chair Holloway. The next steps include reviewing the proposed changes with the Bylaws and Procedures Committee and bringing the final document to a future Board meeting for approval.

2018: Leroy Baker reported that there are 298 people registered and 454 of the 778 tables are sold. He also presented the Treasurer’s report provided by Lee Davis.

Steve Sadowski reported on the security arrangements and costs. He has been able to contract for security services for a fraction of the original budget estimate.

Rich Newman reported that the traditional exhibit will be replaced with special exhibits at the Museum in Columbia and an area of Specialty Chapter exhibits centrally located in the Mart room.
Lu Sadowski and Marion Krawjewski provided an update on the convention location, hotels, auctions, area attractions, and activities at the convention.

2019: Lu Sadowski reported that the contracts for the convention center and some of the hotels in Springfield are completed. She is continuing to negotiate with additional hotels. The theme for the 75th Convention will be “New England Clocks and Watches, and their Makers.”

2020: The proposed site for the 2020 National Convention is Dayton, Ohio. Chapter 23 is meeting this month to determine their interest in being the sponsoring chapter.

34. Lunch: The Board took a brief break to retrieve lunch, and continued with the agenda while completing lunch.

35. Social Media Presence; Rules & Governance: Director Cote discussed social media and showed the Board an example of a successful horological social media site. Executive Director Wilcox provided copies of the existing Message Board rules and the NAWCC web site advertising guide.

36. Member Complaint Process: Director Morris discussed a recent specific incident related to our official Facebook page, as well as our social media rules and enforcement techniques in general. The Board discussed both the specific situation and our policies in general and provided guidance to the Executive Director for further consideration. Executive Director Wilcox stressed that any member complaints brought to Board members should be immediately brought to his attention.

37. Non-Horological Items at Marts: The Convention Committee, at the direction of the Board, developed new language for the Regional Handbook regarding non-horological items in mart rooms. The Board discussed the language presented by the Convention Committee and chose to recommend a slight alteration.

MOTION: Made by Director Morris, seconded by Director Cote. Move that the Convention Committee adopt the following language for Section 1, Page 7 of the Regional Meeting Guide: “Table holders will offer to sell items primarily of horological interest and ensure that non-horological items in the mart are appropriate for NAWCC events and of interest to the members, as determined by the respective event Regional Mart Chair or Regional Meeting Chair.”

38. Tax: Legal Counsel Myron Mintz provided a primer on the NAWCC, Inc. tax exempt status. NAWCC, Inc. is a "non-profit" organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and therefore is not subject to federal income tax on the receipt of its dues from members. NAWCC, Inc. is subject to the federal unrelated income tax and all State and local taxes not otherwise exempt. For example, anything sold by NAWCC (like in the Museum store) is subject to State and local sales tax. Our members’ buying and selling activities are not exempt from taxation as a result of the NAWCC's recognition as a "non-profit" organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, thus NAWCC, Inc.’s tax status has no effect on a members’ income or sales tax obligations.
This is not new, although the rumor persists that since NAWCC, Inc. is tax exempt, members don’t need to consider the sales tax implications of their Mart activities. Sales tax is strictly a State and local jurisdiction requirement, so every place has its own rules. Some jurisdictions may treat hobbyists just like the homeowner who has the occasional garage sale, and ignores the sales tax laws. But that is strictly up to the local jurisdiction and how they enforce their tax laws.

39. Committee Structure for the Future Discussion: Chair Newman and Executive Director Wilcox continue to evaluate the functionality and structure of our committees. They will bring any proposed actions to a future Board meeting.

40. Development Update and Training: Director Gary discussed the need to get all Board members involved in fundraising. Assigning one person or even a few people to the task will not result in the level of fundraising we strive to achieve. Director Gary presented a brief training video on talking to potential donors.

41. Solicit Feedback from Audience. Chair Newman solicited feedback from those in attendance.

42. MOTION: Made by Director Lee, seconded by Vice Chair Holloway: That the Board go into Executive Session to discuss personnel and legal matters.

43. No action was taken in Executive Session

44. MOTION: Made by Director Cote, seconded by Director Wolfe. Move that it shall be the policy of the Board of NAWCC, Inc., its Officers and Directors that no contracts, agreements, or covenants (including but not limited to Conventions, Regionals, or Symposiums) that could obligate the NAWCC, Inc., financially or otherwise, shall be executed by any member, Officer, or Director of the NAWCC, Inc. unless such contract, agreement, or covenant has been reviewed and approved by the Executive Director of the NAWCC, Inc. and if required by Legal Counsel of the NAWCC, Inc.
   Motion carried. Voting Yea: Bartels, Baker, Cote, Gregory, Gary, Holloway, Lee, Morris, Newman, Orr, Wolfe; Voting Nay: None; Absent: Miller

45. MOTION: Made by Vice Chair Holloway, seconded by Director Lee: That the meeting be adjourned.

Meeting adjourned at 3:08 p.m. EST.
